

CLASS INFORMATION

Training creates a bond of love and respect between you and your dog!

The following will give you information on your class and what to bring to class.

All of our classes are group lesson that meet once a week for 6 consecutive weeks, unless otherwise posted. We begin a new session about every six weeks.

OBEDIENCE CLASSES

Puppy Class - $110.00 Puppies must be 8 weeks of age and have 2 shots of the puppy series of vaccinations.

Exercises taught are Puppy Socialization, People Socialization, and all the exercises listed under Basic Obedience I.

Goal: To give the handler a method that they can apply to achieve loose leash verbal control and puppies that have good social skills with people and other dogs.

Basic Obedience 1- $110.00: Your dog must be at least four months of age and have all of its vaccinations. Exercises taught:

Come: Come when called

Sit: Sit on command and Sit-Stay

Down: Down on command and Down-Stay

Heel: No pulling while walking on leash

Stand: Stand for veterinarian examination, toweling, and grooming

Pet Manners: Loose leash and verbal control around other dogs, people and traffic. No mouthing, biting, or barking. Wait at the door or in the car. Go to your rug and wait.

Goal: To give the handler a method that they can apply to achieve loose leash verbal control.

Basic Obedience II - $110.00 Prerequisite: You and your dog must have accomplished the Puppy and Basic Obedience I exercises listed above.

Goal: To get your dog to do the exercises listed under Basic Obedience I OFF Leash.

WHAT TO BRING TO YOUR OBEDIENCE CLASS

Leash and Collar: Bring your dog to class on a 6' nylon or leather leash, 1/2" to 3/4" wide depending on the size of your hands. Your collar should be leather or nylon buckle, or whatever collar you've been using. A buckle collar should fit snugly around the dog's neck, so that it doesn't slip off over his head.

Treats: You should also bring a soft food treat - something special as a reward for your dog. You want a soft treat so your dog does not have to chew. You will reward your dog with a small taste of food, no bigger than a pea.

Clean Up Equipment: You will need to bring paper towels, plastic bags and disinfectant to class to clean up after your dog.

AGILITY CLASSES

Agility Classes are only offered at our Redmond location

Beginning Agility - $105.00 Pre-requisite: all dogs must be trained through Basic Obedience I. Your dog must be at least four months of age and have all of its vaccinations. This is the class where everyone starts. You and your dog will be taught the introductory steps for all of the Agility equipment: A-frame, dogwalk, teeter-totter, weave poles, tunnels, chutes, and jumps. All equipment will be kept low for comfort and safety. You will start learning handling skills such as front-crosses, rear-crosses, wraps, sends, etc.

Novice Agility - $105.00 Pre-requisite: Off-leash control. You will be expanding your skills on the equipment with a priority on safety and control. Equipment stays low. You will learn to run short sequences, work contacts and learn many handling skills.

Intermediate Agility - $105.00 Pre-requisite: Off-leash control and the dog's growth plates must be closed. You will be running courses at full height, as well as expanding your and your dog's skills on serpentines, 180's, 270's, sending, contacts, layering, etc.

Excellent Agility - $105.00 Pre-requisite: Running at the Excellent or Elite Level at trials. Running courses and breaking them apart to learn better handling skills.
